

Porsche Dealership

Conshohocken, PA, United States

---

---

Independence Lighting supplied interior fixtures for a new Porsche dealership in Pennsylvania, designed to complement the building's modern architecture and showcase its performance vehicles.

The lighting creates a clean, balanced environment that enhances visibility and visual comfort while keeping the focus on the cars. The result is a refined space where lighting and design work seamlessly together.